

I would like to express my total disapproval with efforts to stop xm radio from broadcasting local weather and news. This is simply an attempt to squash competition by members of the National Association of Broadcasters. I urge you to block any attempt to stifle competition of the nations' airwaves. Thank you.